Located at the border of Sandy Bay and Battery Point, this expansive two-level home boasts an exceptional location, offering easy access to the Hobart CBD and numerous conveniences nearby. The furnished residence includes two spacious double bedrooms with district views, a sizable main bathroom, and a bright ground-level living area featuring an open design with a well-equipped kitchen and dining space that flows seamlessly into a private courtyard through floor-to-ceiling sliding doors. Additionally, off-street parking for one vehicle. Positioned in a prime location just minutes away from Sandy Bay's shops, restaurants, and cafes, including specialty stores like a gourmet butcher and bakery, as well as major retailers like Woolworths and the picturesque Marieville Esplanade. Access to public transportation adds to the convenience of this remarkable property. Please enquire with your interest to be kept up to date with open home times and changes.
