An instant homely feel creates a "love at first sight" sensation as soon as you enter the front door. Built by local custom builder, the warm tones and classy, neutral colour selections makes this unit a standout. The kitchen/ living zone is spacious, airy and light and would please any fastidious cook offering ample storage and plenty of bench space. The adjoining al fresco area is usable all year round with pull down blinds protecting from the weather and offers another living zone. Remote control single lock up garage and double glazed windows provide that extra comfort all year round. In a central position, walking distance to everything this very comfortable home is immaculately maintained and looked after by its current owners.
