In a superb neighbourhood an easy walk from Brentford Square and Stephens Reserve, this appealing villa offers an immediate sense of security and belonging, nestled within a well-maintained complex. The ideal single-level floorplan reveals a sunny living room with polished timber floors and crisp white walls that will make decorating your new home a breeze, accompanied by a modern kitchen boasting premium Bosch appliances and generous storage. Both bedrooms are bright and welcoming, each with built-in robes and serviced by a contemporary bathroom featuring an oversized rain shower and a vanity that offers terrific storage space. A low-maintenance alfresco courtyard will lure you outdoors to relax and entertain, with property highlights including a repainted interior, split system air conditioning, a full-size laundry, garden shed, outdoor awnings, a carport and a large communal backyard for all residents to enjoy. The location doesn't get any better than this, moments from bus services and Forest Hill Chase, zoned for top-ranking Vermont Secondary College and a short distance from Rangeview shops and cafes, Nunawading and Mitcham Train Stations, Aqualink, Deakin University and the Eastern Freeway/EastLink.
