An inviting fusion of Art Deco architecture and New York inspired design creates a welcoming ambiance in this private garden apartment. One of only three in a tightly held 1930s block, the dual level apartment's tastefully renovated interiors and oversized layout give it a house-like feel however it's the direct access to a lush common garden that makes the apartment a home. Capturing ocean views from the spacious attic retreat, the two-bedroom apartment's ornate ceilings and parquet floors echo the building's past while a stylish designer kitchen and freshly schemed bathroom make for comfortable contemporary living. Offering a sense of space and privacy that's rare to find so close to the heart of Randwick village, the impeccably appointed apartment features 86sqm on title with the palm-framed walled garden the perfect spot to relax or entertain alfresco.
