Neat, sweet and steps from Mooroolbark transport and shopping, this two bedroom unit offers smart buying in an utterly convenient location. Starting out in the property market as either homebuyer or investor isn't easy but this immaculate original style unit offers an affordable option with the bonus of hardwood floors adding warmth and character, full laundry and good size bathroom. Set at the front of the home and featuring the year-round comfort of split system heating and air conditioning, the living area opens to neatly appointed kitchen with good storage. Two bedrooms are positioned of a peaceful hallway and are served by bathroom and separate toilet. Eminently comfortable as is, there's scope to further enhance and truly make this home your own. Stretch your legs with an easy stroll to Mooroolbark delivering all your shopping needs along with cafes, train station and many other amenities. While quality child care, pre-school, primary and secondary schools, parkland and Brushy Creek trail are all close by. Drive a couple of minutes to Chirnside Park shopping centre, central Croydon, Eastland, Eastlink and beyond to the city, the location is quiet and pleasingly convenient.
