Discover the charm of 3 Alpha Court, Mitcham, a residence where space, function, and design are in perfect harmony. This beautifully crafted home boasts a spacious floor plan that caters to both comfort and elegance. At its heart lies a generous family area, a well-appointed kitchen, and a meals section, creating a central hub ideal for family life and entertaining. The master bedroom is a private sanctuary, complete with a walk-in robe and ensuite, offering a luxurious retreat. The additional bedrooms, each with built-in robes, are well-sized and conveniently positioned near the central bathroom, combining practicality with privacy. Light-filled living spaces open onto an undercover decking area, perfect for alfresco dining against the backdrop of a beautifully landscaped garden. Essential amenities such as a separate laundry room and an outdoor shed meet all storage needs, while the welcoming porch accessed via a tidy driveway sets a homely tone from the outset. Located in a peaceful cul-de-sac, this home is just a leisurely walk from Antonio Park Primary School, with buses nearby that provide easy access to the vibrant Mitcham shops and train station. The excitement of Eastland shopping and dining, as well as the Eastern Freeway and Eastlink, are only a short drive away, positioning this home in a locale that offers both tranquility and the pulse of the city. This is more than a home, it's a lifestyle choice for those seeking a blend of serene living and urban convenience, a place to create cherished memories in an enviable location.
