Discover enduring quality in this well-crafted home, featuring four spacious bedrooms, including a master with a generous walk-in robe and ensuite. The central bathroom boasts a touch of luxury with floor-to-ceiling porcelain tiles and high-end fixtures. The kitchen, complete with stone benchtops, opens to a separate dining area and overlooks the main living room with both offering a view directly out to the backyard and outdoor living space large enough to host the best of family gatherings. This home also offers the added bonus of second formal living area. The double car garage features a decorative flooring that would make the perfect car showroom or simply utilise as you see fit. Modern comforts include ducted heating, split-system air conditioning, and high ceilings. Situated in the sought-after Lyndarum Estate in Epping, this home is a practical and comfortable retreat. If you're in the market for a family-friendly residence with a touch of elegance, make sure to check this one out during your next inspection.
