Family living is elevated to new heights in this high-set 1920s residence where generous proportions showcase light-filled spaces, private outdoor areas and sweeping views to the city skyline. Its spacious two-storey layout displays a clever architectural renovation and a flowing design that provides an ultra-peaceful entertaining environment where modern style, character and scenery all combine with great success. This superb property is exclusively located at the very end of one of North Annandale's most sought-after cul-de-sacs, walking distance to village shops, harbourside parklands, schools and the light rail transport at Rozelle Bay. Set up high and capturing natural light and northerly city outlooks. Smart modern upgrades combined with original character features. A bright and airy open plan living space with skylit casual living area. High ornate ceilings, leadlight windows and polished timber flooring. Contemporary kitchen with quality finishes and a stone breakfast bar. A private entertainers' courtyard and a secure car space at the rear. Three upstairs bedrooms each have custom built-ins and ceiling fans. Generous and light formal lounge room and separate downstairs study. C-Bus control, ducted air-con, alarm and integrated surround sound. Within the catchment for the sought-after Annandale North Public School.
