A generous and bright home that delivers modern spaces with low-maintenance ease and excellent convenience is perfect for today's active families. This great-looking three-bedroom residence provides all this and more, with a flowing single-level layout that encourages easy living, a great-sized block of land and a prime location that's footsteps to acres of parkland around Bellevue Reserve. It's also very well-positioned within strolling distance to Georges Hall Village, public transport, playing fields, schools and all everyday essentials. Bright and engaging floorplan featuring a generous open living area. Quality modern kitchen with formica benches and stainless appliances. The three good-sized bedrooms are all fitted with built-in wardrobes. A spacious and private backyard including a deep east-facing lawn. Covered entertainment patio and outdoor dining space at the side. A triple carport at the front plus plenty of additional secure parking. Air-conditioned living area, lock-up garden shed and polished floors.
