This magnificent low set steel framed home is freshly renovated and looking for a new owner. Upon entering this lovely home you will be greeted with the living room which is air conditioned and of good size. Walking through to our dining room to the left you will find the galley style kitchen with electric appliances, plenty of bench space and storage. The 3 bedrooms are a good size, all have ceiling fans, built in robes and are carpeted. There is a separate toilet and the modern bathroom is central including a large shower. Outside is very private with landscaped gardens a huge patio for entertaining, the fully fenced back yard has an array of fruit trees. There is side access to the powered 6x6 shed. Featuring solar power, 305ltr solar hot water, security doors, window awnings, and much much more. Cooloola Cove is the gateway to Rainbow Beach and Tin Can Bay - so only 20 minutes to Rainbow surf beaches and 10 minutes from the tranquil waters of Tin Can Bay where the Dolphins play.
