Nestled within the coveted TSS precinct, this charming Cape Cod-style residence epitomizes timeless allure and sophistication. Surrounded by verdant landscapes in a tranquil residential enclave, this home seamlessly blends classic design with contemporary comforts, establishing itself as a hallmark of the neighbourhood. Comprising four generously sized bedrooms, 3 with ensuites, and a study, this thoughtfully crafted home caters to families of all sizes. Experience awe-inspiring views of Surfers Paradise, Main Beach, and Broadbeach skylines from multiple vantage points across the property. Step through the doors to discover lofty 3-meter ceilings and sun-drenched interiors that foster a welcoming atmosphere. The expansive entryway and adjoining verandas provide an ideal backdrop for outdoor gatherings, reflecting the laid-back Queensland lifestyle. Key highlights of this abode include a double lock-up garage, ducted air-conditioning, and open-plan living areas perfect for entertaining guests. The kitchen stands as the centrepiece, boasting modern amenities and seamlessly extending into the outdoor entertainment zone. Warm, rich timber flooring infuses the interiors with character and charm, while the luxurious master suite beckons with its walk-in robe, spa-like ensuite, and secluded balcony retreat. With full fencing, the property ensures security and tranquillity, even for your furry companions. Located within close reach of esteemed private schools like TSS and St Hilda's, as well as convenient amenities such as the light rail, James Overell Park, and Sundale shopping, this home offers unparalleled convenience and lifestyle opportunities. Embark on leisurely strolls to nearby Ferry Road Markets or revel in the beachside lifestyle with easy access to Main Beach cafes. This residence encapsulates the essence of Gold Coast living, offering a rare chance to own a slice of paradise in a prime locale.
