Normanville has always been known as a quiet and relaxing coastal town. Normanville has the most beautiful beach & swimming waters with an inspirational back drop of rolling hills. The moment you drive through the cute centre of town you get that feeling of relaxation and calmness. Recently there are many upgrades happening on the foreshore area. I have been impressed to see that the council have managed to keep the original character and charm of Normanville. Normanville truly is a secret spot you will love for generations if you had a home here. 4 allotments to choose from. 39 Jetty Road – allotment 911 – corner allotment overlooking Jetty Road and the open fields across the road. 603m². 1 Croser Street – allotment 912 16.9m frontage. 608m². 3 Croser Street – allotment 913 - SOLD 16.9m frontage. 611m². 5 Croser Street – allotment 914 - SOLD 16.6m frontage. 620m². These rare allotments are ready to go now so we invite you to have a drive past to get a feel for the location. Perhaps spend the weekend at a nearby short-term holiday home to really feel and understand why Normanville is so special. Close to the scene of Aldinga but without the hustle and bustle if you get what I mean. Talk to your builder. Make your dream a reality.
