Private Auction Saturday 20 January (Unless sold prior) At a glance - An iconic Lorne landmark with a storied past - Evocative, fully renovated freestone mansion - Refined spaces with superb coastal outlooks - Tranquil garden setting on approximately half an acre above the Erskine River Abode A property that traces its roots back to the prominent wool broking Lascelles family, Waverley House is a c1880 freestone mansion that melds classical elegance and modern excellence amidst tranquil gardens. Downstairs spaces dedicated to living, dining and entertaining in the grand manner are complemented by an impeccably appointed kitchen, substantial pantry and a wine cellar. Five bedrooms, three bathrooms, a study and fabulous outlooks from four balconies define the upstairs level of an estate where traditions have moved with the times to create a wonderful experience, every day, in every way. Area On a commanding corner site above the Erskine River, enjoy views that reach over the beach and the ocean beyond.
