Offering panoramic views across the River Derwent, elevated to capture abundant Eastern Shore sunshine, this prime parcel of land is ready for a dream home to be built, boasting some of the most spectacular vistas in the city. Tucked away in a tranquil location, within a quiet cul-de-sac filled with quality homes, the expansive 1,185 sqm allotment, which is fully fenced, provides endless opportunities to construct a family home filled with warmth and comfort. The uninterrupted views are ensured, with the block of land gently sloping, sitting above the nearby rooflines of other properties. Enjoy Hobart's vibrant marine activity on the river, including the Sydney to Hobart Yacht race, and the arrival of cruises hips, along with front row seats to the spectacular New Years' Eve fireworks displays. Tranmere is one of the Eastern Shore's most sought-after suburbs, with its close proximity to the water's edge, and the neighbouring beaches and amenities of Howrah, Rosny, and Bellerive. Major supermarkets, including the brand-new Glebe Hill Village, are all just minutes away by car. Affording a superior lifestyle in a convenient location, this premier building block in Tranmere provides a blank canvas to create a sensational family home with enviable outlooks in one of the region's most sought-after locations.
