

3 Ginseng Court, Kingston, Tas 7050

Sold House

Monday, 4 March 2024

3 Ginseng Court, Kingston, Tas 7050

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 7

Area: 1342 m2

Type: House

Warren Lashmar
0427788205

$960,000

A great family home that occupies a massive 1342sqm level block and delivers uninterrupted views to kunanyi/Mount Wellington. Discover a private oasis, where the indulgence of space is combined with a relaxing change of pace and the gorgeous gardens with established fruit trees and bird attracting native plants will delight. There's so much room for the family and plenty of parking too, with a huge garage of over 60sqm that is lined and insulated, a large carport and ample hardstand for a boat or van. Located deceptively close to all that the Kingborough lifestyle has to offer, you'll find picturesque beaches and fabulous restaurants a short drive away. Promising privacy, space and style along with exceptional convenience this fantastic property is a must see. Great angles and lots of windows, high and low attract warm and lots of light and a series of indoor and outdoor living areas ensure peaceful living and effortless entertaining. Perfectly oriented to capture all day sunshine, the north facing living/dining area is undoubtedly the heart of this home and features dual access to two large decks. The spacious kitchen, appointed with an extra wide freestanding range with gas cooktop, allows for more than one cook to create culinary delights. Intelligent in design, the unique floorplan also boasts a dedicated 3 bedroom family zone with bathroom and additional living area. Enjoy those marvellous mountain views from the huge master suite, beautifully complemented with a large walk-in robe and the luxurious ensuite, with twin sink vanity, separate shower and spa bath suggests indulgent at-home spa days. This great offering feels like a lifestyle property but has absolute urban convenience. This could be the middle ground you've been looking for.

- Private oasis with stunning views to kunanyi/Mount Wellington on huge 1342sqm block
- Unique layout including 3 bedroom family zone with bathroom and separate living area
- Master suite with mountain views, walk-in robe, large ensuite and deck access
- Perfectly oriented north facing living/dining area with dual access to two decks
- Well-appointed kitchen with extra wide freestanding range with gas cooktop
- Massive double bay shed, additional carport and hardstand for boat/van
- Walk to bus, Kingston High School and sports grounds