Wide interiors rich in character, a level northeast garden and rare off-street parking for up to three cars are among the many desirable qualities of this grandly scaled four-bedroom residence (c1895). Capturing front views to the water from its prominent position, the home reflects a devotion to classic family living with generous space and further opportunity including concept plans to remodel and/or build up for significantly expanded water views (STCA). Located within 5mins walk of harbourside Elkington Park and the heart of Darling Street village yet quiet and private, this is an exceptional offering with a distinguished address ready for a new chapter.- Spacious two-storey design, high ceilings and original features - Large living and dining rooms flow through to induction kitchen- Four bedrooms include three opening to a verandah or balcony- Master bedroom enjoys north water views to Gladesville Bridge- Carrara marble bathroom includes bath, second WC in the garden- Established garden bathed in sun and parking for multiple cars- Short drive to the ferry and zoning for Birchgrove Public School
