Perfectly presented from the front garden to the back fence. This well-maintained brick home, has recently undergone a cosmetic update, allowing the new owner to simply unpack and enjoy. The interior of the home, boasts new carpet and paint throughout, generous size lounge room, easily accessible to the timber kitchen with gas cooking, ample cupboard and bench space and adjoining meals area. All three bedrooms are generously proportioned, the master bed includes built-in robes and all are easily accessible to the modern renovated tiled bathroom. Other features inside include a separate laundry, separate toilet and one of the most desirable features of any home, a recently installed fully ducted reverse cycle air conditioning system. Outside enjoys a double tandem carport with gates, separate workshop and a perfectly maintained north facing garden allotment of 667 m² (approx) All this just minutes from schools, Parkland, shopping and of course stunning beaches. After 30 years of ownership, we are looking for a new owner to enjoy this home as much as the current owner. Inspection is highly recommended.
