Spacious and sundrenched with a touch of stately sophistication, this 4-bedroom home with study is brimming with family appeal in the bowl of a small court in footsteps to a choice of schools. Cleverly configured to adapt to every age and stage, the residence delights with 3 large living areas, immaculate presentation and a vast alfresco entertaining area spilling onto an expansive and fully fenced backyard for children to play.~ Immediately setting a regal tone, the striking entry hall boasts a sweeping staircase transporting you between floors.~ The expansive open plan family room and dining area are framed by sliding doors to an undercover terrace for tranquil outdoor living and barbecuing with friends.~ A well-endowed living room with regal maroon carpeting and timber venetian blinds sits within the master wing, while a 3rd lounge on upper level complements the junior quarters.~ The full-sized family kitchen pairs style and function with generous cabinetry and stainless-steel appliances, including a convection oven, dishwasher and gas cooktop.~ Parents will relish the capacious master bedroom with walk-in robe and private ensuite, along with tall windows framing the verdant garden.~ Cocooned on the upper level, the 3 children's bedrooms are each fitted with walk-in robes and enjoy easy access to a full family bathroom with tub, dual vanity and separate toilet.~ Those who work remotely or in a hybrid capacity will appreciate the dedicated home office on the entry level.~ Every comfort is supplied with a gas log fireplace, gas ducted heating, split-systems throughout and a double garage to park the vehicles.~ Outdoors will certainly satisfy the man of the house with a large workshop 5.8mx9m, off street parking for a caravan, boat and several cars and a 5kw solar inverter system. Located in a quiet enclave in paces to Western Port Second College, the property is just a few minutes' drive to the major shopping of High Street and nearby foreshore spoils.
