Located within a short commute to the Launceston CBD, local schools and shopping is this solidly built home that is going to tick all the boxes for home buyers or investors. All the hard work has already been done so it is right to go on day one. The recently renovated kitchen has been completed with the soft closing drawers, stone bench tops, induction cooktop and a very clever butlers pantry and laundry. There are three bedrooms which all boast built-in wardrobes and the master offering an ensuite. The large undercover deck area flows beautifully from the kitchen dining space and receives great all day sun so it will make a fantastic place to entertain all year round. The single garage has an electric roller door a workshop area and leads into the fully secure pet friendly backyard. This property is as neat as a pin, and an absolute must to see.
