With its unbeatable location, top-of-the-line finishes, and inviting open plan design, this architecturally designed town residence with striking mixed material façade offers the ultimate easy-care lifestyle. The epitome of urban luxury, the practically new residence is quietly poised in a boutique complex that guarantees a sense of exclusivity and privacy. An open plan domain is accentuated by gleaming, tiled flooring and lashings of light with sliding doors to a private landscaped yard with sunny deck and entertaining space. This design effortlessly unifies the living, dining, kitchen and alfresco zones creating an effortless flow so you can entertain your guests without missing a beat. At the heart, the CaesarStone kitchen delivers for home chefs with stainless steel appliances, including dishwasher, expansive benchtops and clever walk-in storage for a fridge and pantry. At the end of each day, ascend the stairs to the bedroom wing where two bedrooms with plentiful robes each offer supreme comfort and sophistication serviced by a sparkling bathroom. The master is treated to a chic ensuite with floor to ceiling tiles, and there's a study nook with built-in desk when you need a quiet spot to work from home. Well-considered design choices extend to a convenient single garage with internal entry, extra storage space and laundry facilities, downstairs powder room, easy-care artificial turf in the yard plus Rinnai heating and split system air-conditioning for seasonal comfort.
