For those looking for a near new home with all the modern-day features you could desire, this will be your complete package! It is ideal for first home buyers, downsizers and investors looking for a low maintenance home with a functional floor plan in a desirable location. From the welcoming entrance way, through to the open plan living space, the home is bathed in natural light. A modern kitchen includes a walk in pantry and an island bench which is capable of seating multiple guests and overlooks the spacious open plan living. The master suite is blessed with two walk in robes and has an en suite, whilst two additional robed bedrooms are in close proximity to the family bathroom. Key assets include ducted gas central heating, double garage with remote roller door and secure boundary fencing. Within a short walk of the Dennington primary school, shopping and sporting facilities, this property has everything ever so close by - make the move and come inspect this home today!
