BOARDROOM AUCTION FRIDAY 8TH MARCH AT 6:30PM - 427 HIGH STREET, NORTHCOTE A coveted Westgarth address and a picturesque Edwardian profile create the perfect presence for this three bedroom home that skilfully blends period beauty, modern quality and an alfresco garden oasis. Just a short walk to all of the cafes, restaurants, shopping and transport options that make the area such a lifestyle drawcard, this attractive home zoned to Northcote High impresses with its high ceilings, open fireplace and exposed red brick wall that runs along its length. With a traditional floorplan that sees a lofty hall that introduces well-proportioned bedrooms, this home hits a highpoint with its sundrenched open plan living. Velux windows light up a versatile living and dining anchored by an Asko/AEG appointed soft-close kitchen where timber shelving adds rustic element to a space whose extensive glazing offers easy connection to an alfresco haven resplendent with fruit trees that invites summer entertaining. Updated bath and powder rooms are stylishly tiled, there's attic access, bamboo flooring, new wool carpets, double glazing, hydronic heating, split system-air-conditioning, ceiling fans and off-street parking accessed via right-of-way. With its easy access to Westgarth Village, the Capital City Trail, Yarra parklands and schools, this turnkey makes an ideal first home or stylish downsizer opportunity in a prized lifestyle locale.
