Introducing 3 McKenzie Drive, Low Head, a 3 bedroom, 1.5 bathroom haven that exudes the beachside charm and tranquillity of Low Head. A mere 2-minute stroll from the breathtaking Lagoon Beach, this delightful abode blends easy coastal living with the comforts of a modern home. Each bedroom is adorned with built-ins, with the master boasting direct access to a spacious bathroom and near the sunny front decking. Start your mornings here, basking in the warmth of the Tasmanian summer. The layout effortlessly flows into a generously-sized lounge, which leads to a covered rear deck through sliding doors, perfect for year-round entertaining. The dining area integrates seamlessly with a well-appointed kitchen, featuring ample space for breakfast bench dining. The house also includes a separate laundry room and a second toilet for added convenience. Strategically positioned at the rear of the block, the property takes full advantage of its location with thoughtful landscaping and a garage that's easily accessible and maintained. Low Head, a neighbourhood of both permanent and holiday homes, is fast becoming a hotspot for those seeking a balanced lifestyle - beaches, fishing, walking, and mountain biking, to name a few. The convenience of George Town is just a 5-minute drive away, with Launceston reachable in about 35 minutes. To experience the magic of 3 McKenzie Drive, call us today to schedule a viewing. Welcome to a life where every day feels like a holiday.
