With a combination of amazing features this home has much to offer, from the iconic 1950's architecture with generous amounts of natural light to the inclusion of solar panels and the potential to further develop. Within an easy walk to Bakery/Café, The Wesley Hill weekend market, recreational amenities and bush walking tracks the home is set to the front of the allotment with North facing rear yard providing lovely outlooks across Moonlight Flat and beyond to Mt Alexander as well as having a broad rear access. The home offers 3 Bedrooms, Central bathroom, generous sized lounge, kitchen with meals area and sunroom to the rear. There are timber floors, original ceiling detail, timber windows and further features of the era throughout and the home has been restumped. There is a lock up garage and established gardens further complementing this ideally positioned home ready for the next chapter in its life. Selling with Vacant Possession.
