The 2 bedroom cottage-style home could be the answer if you are not ready for a unit. Also a great first home instead of paying rent. With a good flat block of land that would suit an elderly couple or a single person. The open-plan living area has a gas heat pump reverse cycle and also the choice to have a wood pellet fire for the cosy appearance on a cold day the choice is yours. There is a small shed for a ride-on lawnmower and gardening tools. The back entry to the home has a covered area for shoes etc out of the rain.
