Westbury is a quaint country township a short 20-minute commute from Launceston and is home to a great primary school, new IGA supermarket, doctors, chemist, vet, cafes and many other wonderful local businesses. With a terrific sportsground and other community areas such as the Village Green and Town Common, Westbury is a great place to raise a family and 3 Queen street could be your perfect family home. Features include:

- Circa 2002 built brick veneer home with 3 bedrooms, each with built in robes
- Timber kitchen with adjoining dining room
- Spacious lounge area adorned with natural timber features and a raked ceiling
- Rumpus room or second living area could also be a 4th bedroom
- Bathroom has a separate shower and bath
- Climate controlled year-round with a Daikin reverse cycle A/C and two Pureheat electric heaters
- Flat block measuring 843m² with a double garage, workshop, established gardens, lawns, concrete driveway and paths

Whether you are looking for a family home, or an investment property, you won't find better value than 3 Queen Street, Westbury. This property is sure to be popular, check it out at the advertised open home or call us for a private inspection.
