

3 Redman Street, Seaforth, NSW 2092

STONE

Sold House

Friday, 3 November 2023

3 Redman Street, Seaforth, NSW 2092

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Julian Rowe
0412544448

Jessica Fedrigo
0404989070

$4,158,000

With a breezy contemporary coastal aesthetic, generously proportioned interiors and light-drenched living and entertaining spaces, this exceptionally well-designed family home is both luxurious and practical, beautifully combining style, function and comfort. The home's relaxed, yet sophisticated design focuses on the year-round indoor/outdoor living and entertaining that works so well for families, with an upper-level living area and large covered terrace boasting views sweeping over to the city skyline and across the brilliant blue waters of Middle Harbour – the perfect spot for taking in Sydney's famous New Year's Eve fireworks.- Entertainers' dream kitchen with bi-fold windows opening to alfresco entertaining space, centre island/breakfast bar, stone benchtops, gas cooktop, European appliances and butler's pantry- Generous living room with wainscoting and plantation shutters, overlooking dining and beyond to pool and garden- Large dining area adjacent to kitchen and extending out to covered alfresco entertaining terrace and sunny garden via bi-fold doors- Luxe master suite with high, pitched ceiling, walk-in robe and ensuite with shower and freestanding bathtub - Three additional extra-large bedrooms with plantation shutters and built-in robes plus family bathroom with shower and freestanding bathtub - Convenient location offering close proximity to Seaford village shopping and eateries, city buses, beaches and schools - Swimming pool with sandstone surround, timber decking and water feature - Private, level backyard with established gardens, cubby house and fire pit area with built-in seating, - Remote double garage with storage and workshop plus driveway parking