Placed only paces from Chelsea Heights Primary school, shops and parks, this rejuvenated 3 bedroom home is ready for immediate enjoyment - Delivering a timeless foundation as a string of entertaining zones capture an elevated living experience with sensational versatility. On 578sqm (approx) unassuming from the front, a classic aesthetic fronts a home bolstered by contemporary features, freshly painted accommodation provides families with an extremely satisfying base to retreat to at the end of the working day. While centrally positioned for seamless indoor-outdoor hosting, a beautiful updated kitchen takes the spotlight as premium appliances and large double sliding doors appeal to those who love to entertain. Among its many highlights are a welcoming lounge/dining room with gas log fireplace, split system heating/cooling, three generous sized bedrooms and a stylishly updated bathroom. Framing an impressive rear yard with alfresco prestige before a substantial steel framed oversized garage also accommodating a workshop, offers space for every venture and is perfect for those seeking multiple off-street and secure parking. Full laundry and dual blinds are among the practicalities of a truly appealing family-friendly package which is within moments of the fabulous expanses of Bicentennial Park, the suburb's shopping destinations, bus stops, Cornish College and freeways for a straight-forward workday commute.
