The crisp country air, the gentle rustle of leaves and soothing sounds of nature will likely take your breath away. However, the views across the valleys to Highfields will surely stop you breathing altogether. It's time to take action on this incredible 4,120m<sup>2</sup> parcel of The Reserve's finest, elevated blocks. With views that won't be taken away from other developments in the estate it's time to plan how you'll capture every angle of the 180 degrees of perfection. With the majority of homes now built, it's your turn to get your creative juices flowing and design a dream home that demands a creative palate to not only capture the views but also to interact with the huge gently sloped land that's all yours to call home sweet home. From every angle of the home, you will want to capture district views, sunrise and sunsets and a big yard with the kids enjoying the massive space. Call Michael Good now on 0422 718 476 to discuss your plans for a future reserved for a select few that get to call Meringandan West home.
