Nestled at the top of Buderim in a quiet cul de sac, this large 4-bedroom residence boasts a character-filled charm that will immediately steal your heart. With the added bonus of a spacious office that could easily transform into a 5th bedroom, this home is tailor-made for the modern work-from-home lifestyle. The office flaunts a private entrance, ideal for those seeking a seamless balance between work and personal space. Spanning two generous levels, this home offers an abundance of living areas, each infused with its unique ambiance. Imagine waking up to breathtaking ocean views that extend from the lounge to the kitchen and the luxurious master bedroom. The large kitchen offers timber benchtops and a servery that connects to the expansive wrap-around veranda, creating the perfect setup to entertain your guests. Picture yourself sipping a refreshing beverage while sharing laughter and breathtaking views. The lower level presents itself as an ideal guest retreat, complete with a lounge and bathroom. This area effortlessly connects to the undercover veranda, lush gardens and alluring saltwater pool. The recently renovated bathrooms, laundry, and walk-in robe showcase a modern elegance that complements the home's overall character. Hosting gatherings is a breeze with various indoor and outdoor entertainment spaces at your disposal. The poolside gazebo, complete with a newly added outdoor kitchen featuring a BBQ and bar fridge, beckons you to unwind in style by the large saltwater pool. Resting on a sprawling 750m² block, the property is securely fenced, ensuring both privacy and safety. A double garage accommodates your vehicles, while additional side parking caters to your boat, trailer, or caravan, making adventuring a part of your lifestyle.
