This immaculate three bedroom unit is now available. Owner occupied this stand alone unit will make for a comfortable home or a great investment, not a thing to do just move in. Park your car in the garage and enter from the front entrance or internally downstairs, where you will find a large rumpus room with access to toilet and water plumbing, which could easily be converted into a third bedroom or self contained living space. Upstairs there is comfortable accommodation, two generous bright bedrooms, each with built-ins. The centrally located bathroom which can be accessed via the master bedroom contains shower, bath and vanity and the separate toilet is adjacent. The spacious free flowing kitchen, living and dining area have sweeping water views and are well maintained. All this is set in a quiet no through street, only 25 minutes from the Hobart CBD and a short drive from Sorell and all the amenities. Whether you are a first home buyer, astute investor or downsizer, call us today to arrange an inspection.
