If you are looking for a dual level family home, this property is going to peak your interest. Situated within close proximity to the Forrest Street Reserve, public transport and the ALDI complex, everything a growing family could need is right at your fingertips. With a decent setback from the street, you will enjoy the privacy that comes with this home and upon stepping over the threshold you are immediately met by an abundance of natural light. Immediately to your right is a study which could double as a kids play area or anything that your family needs; this is perfect for the professional couple, growing family or is so user friendly that it could be for whatever you like! Progressing through the home, you arrive at the open plan kitchen/meals area which is a functional space that really is the heart of the home. With timber features accenting this space, it provides that warm, cosy and homely feeling that we all search for within a home. Just off this area is your large lounge room which is spacious enough for everyone to enjoy; numerous windows offer a plethora of natural light whilst the fireplace creates the warmth and ambience of your new home. Accommodation provides three spacious bedrooms which all continue the timber accents throughout and offer BIRs for functionality. The main is complete with a cosy ensuite that provides a corner shower, an abundance of cupboard/drawer space and a built in basin. Guests all share the central bathroom which offers a tiled bath, framed shower and expansive cupboard and bench space. Heading outside, your backyard is impressive in size and offers an expanse of grass as well as a paved area which is perfect for a table and chairs in the warmer weather. This space is the final touch to a beautiful family home. Additional inclusions are; shed, fans, split system and so much more !Please ensure to attend one of our open homes or give us a call to arrange a private inspection
