This fantastic home is perfectly located in popular Bridle Estate. Step inside and be greeted by not one, but two inviting living areas, perfect for relaxing with loved ones or entertaining guests. The open-plan kitchen living space creates a seamless flow, making it the heart of the home. This beautiful residence with its elegant interiors boasts three good sized bedrooms, the master featuring a walk in robe while the two remaining bedrooms both include built in robes, two bathrooms, and a double garage with direct entry to the home, ensuring both convenience and security for you and your family. Its prime location places it within close proximity to the Mid Valley Shopping Centre, where you can shop in comfort, enjoy delicious dining options, and catch the latest blockbuster at the cinema, all just minutes away from your doorstep. For families with children, you'll be pleased to know that this home is also conveniently situated near local schools, providing excellent educational opportunities and ensuring a smooth daily routine for both parents and students alike. Whether you're a growing family in search of more space, a couple looking for a peaceful retreat or an investor seeking a prime rental opportunity, this home offers something for everyone. Don't let this opportunity slip away. Schedule an inspection today by calling Anthony Bloomfield on 0455 303 750 and experience firsthand the comfort, convenience, and lifestyle this home has to offer.
