The exterior of the home is well maintained with lush landscaped Japanese gardens, both at the front and rear, giving the home a calm relaxing feel. Then step inside to a home that has been completely restored, this modern interior is striking and ready for new owners to sit back and enjoy. The floorplan consists of three bedrooms, a modern full-family bathroom with separate toilet and laundry with external access, plus living, dining and kitchen to cater for family and friends. The lounge room is remarkable and is sure to impress; with high pitched ceilings, fire place and a light colour palette this is designed to make the room inviting, it then opens out to the decked patio area which is ideal to entertain. The kitchen is complete with real timber cabinetry complete with frosted panelling and stainless-steel appliances. The flooring throughout the home is a just divine with a neutral light/grey colouring and tiling in the wet areas. On a 350m² block, this home is renovated beautifully in the suburb of Keysborough, within close proximity to local schools, shops and parklands.
