You will feel a true feeling of coming home to this beautiful and well-maintained home. This property offers more than the average home with a large allotment that holds fabulous potential, a bright modern kitchen overlooking the backyard to watch the kids play and take in the views and a large deck that also leads out to the yard with plenty of running room for the kids and pets all safely behind high fences whilst also allowing access to vehicles. This is a great way to start your real estate journey in Rowville but also has the potential for more dreams in the future! Conveniently located close to parks, schools and shops, this property is priced to please with great appeal to all ages. Proudly marketed by Barry Plant Rowville - 9752 2828
