Filled with sunlight & designed for indoor/outdoor living this free standing 1970's home with exposed timber beams boasts surprising large interiors ideal for the home entertainer. A vast kitchen offering an incredibly large work space with lots of storage & a breakfast bar with adjacent family/dining. This area opens onto a timber entertaining deck with large undercover entertaining zone along the rear of the home. Polished floors in the living/entrance area with air conditioning & three generous bedrooms with ceiling fans. A family bathroom with separate toilet. There is internal access from the upper level to ground floor. At ground level there is a large rumpus/living room, laundry with second toilet & room for another shower. Internal access to the double garage plus access to outside patios & huge work shop room. The home offers both front and rear yard space for kids. Lane way access & it's positioned just moment to schools, river & town centre.
