This recently renovated home sits on a fully fenced 1012m² block within walking distance of Sandpiper Beach and Thompson's Point. Beautifully presented and meticulously maintained, this home is move in ready. My clients have just completed an extensive renovation including new kitchen, freshly painted inside and out, new flooring, lighting and so much more. WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU INSPECT: - Three bedrooms, the main with walk in robe and ensuite. - A fourth bedroom downstairs with sitting area and ensuite - ideal for guests. - Two living areas plus large open plan kitchen and dining. - Family bathroom and internal laundry. - Generous covered deck overlooking the rear yard. - Double lock up garage plus double carport. - Fully fenced with electric gate and concrete driveway to the rear of the property. - Ducted and zoned air-conditioning and ceiling fans. - 6.8kw solar system and new Evo Heat Pump HWS. - Internal and external shutters. This home has so much to offer and is competitively priced. Make a point of inspecting this home before it is too late. Macleay Island lies just 18 minutes from Redland Bay via passenger ferry and a further 45 minutes to Brisbane CBD or the airport. Our village offers all of the amenities you would expect including Post Office, medical facilities, ambulance and police officers, clubs and café's, hairdressers and retail stores.
