Perched on a prime corner block along Buderim's sought-after northern escarpment, this graceful Hamptons-style residence offers not only breathtaking coastal vistas to the north-east but also a modern and comfortable lifestyle for every family member. Spanning two levels with a versatile floor plan, this home is designed for perfect family living with the possibility of a kids retreat downstairs. Featuring four bedrooms, two bathrooms, a powder room, separate living areas upstairs and downstairs, expansive timber decks on both levels, great for entertaining and a stylish kitchen with brand-new Smeg appliances; this residence also boasts solar power and split system air-conditioning throughout for added comfort. Outside, an in-ground pool with a sunbathing terrace and a double lock-up garage complete the picture on a beautifully landscaped 827m² block. Elevated to make the most of stunning views and gentle breezes, this residence showcases high ceilings, premium hybrid flooring, plantation shutters, and thoughtful design elements throughout. Additional modern comforts include ceiling fans, stacker doors opening to the decks, a gas cooktop, caesar stone benches in the kitchen, and ample storage. The presentation is impeccable both inside and out, complemented by tropical gardens that create a resort-style atmosphere, turning this house into a home where time spent away feels like a miss, and friends eagerly anticipate visiting! Ideal for hosting celebrations, from intimate gatherings to family events, the decks and poolside area provide impeccable comfort and style. Joyful moments, lasting memories, laughter, and friendship—this residence embodies the essence of a true home.
