Welcome to 30 Arthur Street, Payneham - a stunning Georgian two-storey home that epitomises quality and enduring craftsmanship. Built in 1997, this elegant residence is set high on a corner allotment, showcasing double brick construction and a spacious design. As you approach, you'll notice the wide frontage and the stand-alone double brick garage with side access, ensuring ample parking space. The home's grandeur is immediately apparent with 2.7m (approx) ceilings and double timber doors leading to the main rooms, adding a touch of sophistication. Step inside to a light-filled entry gallery with sweeping hardwood stairs that lead to the upper level. This home offers the option of a home office or a fourth bedroom, with potential for a downstairs master bedroom suite. The large lounge/theatre room, once a formal dining area, now provides a flexible space for modern family living, complemented by an adjoining family area next to the kitchen. The second level houses the main sleeping quarters, including a reading nook overlooking the treetops - perfect for relaxing or creating a cosy office space. With two bedrooms featuring built-in robes, one with a walk-in, and ample storage throughout, this home is both fresh and bright. The original kitchen, lovingly maintained, boasts a spacious corner pantry. Outside, enjoy a well-established, irrigated lawn and minimal plantings, making weekend relaxation a breeze. There's even room for a pool or potential to convert the double brick garage into a teen retreat, granny flat, or studio with upstairs accommodation. This property offers around 237 sqm of built area on a compact block of approximately 378 sqm, presenting an excellent opportunity for an upmarket renovation. Modern conveniences include ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, remote roller door garage access, and manual irrigation front and rear. Located close to transport, quality schools, and shopping at Marden and The Avenues, with lifestyle amenities on Magill Road and The Parade Norwood, you have an abundance of choice. Sport and recreation facilities at Payneham Oval, including a tennis club and community playground, are right on your doorstep. Don't miss this rarely found gem. With so many attributes and a prime location, 30 Arthur Street is worth considering.
