This comfortable and light-filled 3-bedroom home is perfect for those seeking a cozy urban-style getaway from city life, while staying within proximity to beautiful sunny beaches. Located in the small and friendly seaside town of Dunalley, the home features timber flooring throughout and is suitable for all types of buyers including professionals, retirees, families, and investors. The area offers a range of activities such as fishing, surfing, walking, and biking, whilst also being close to the Tasman Peninsula and Tasman National Park. Sorell is approx a 20-minute drive away, while the airport is around 30 minutes. For those who appreciate community spirit, there are regular events in the local area, along with plenty of activities for those who love the sea, community, arts, and more. The home comprises three bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes, blinds, windows, timber flooring, and neutral walls. It is low maintenance and has minimal noise. The location is convenient, within walking distance to the service station, groceries, Post Office, General Store, local school and a short drive to the canal, jetty, boat ramp, and beach. Investors can take advantage of an already fully furnished buy and rent opportunity, while those seeking a holiday rental or short-term stay can also find a unique opportunity in this property. Don't wait, this home is a rare find in a great location with great views plus additional extras available to you. For all enquiries, please contact Sommai Coomber.
