Vendors have relocated and are keen to sell this home. Backing onto a Nature reserve it would be so easy to imagine you are living amongst bushland in this East Lismore home. Located only a couple of minutes from the Lismore Golf Club, Southern Cross University and St. Vincent's hospital. The home features roomy bedrooms (all with built in robes), solar hot water service, solar panels, plus the main bathroom has been recently beautifully renovated. The lovely high cathedral ceilings in the spacious rumpus room would be perfect for an active family. Downstairs features timber floors and the kitchen and open plan living areas are surrounded by the undercover timber deck on three sides. There is also a paved courtyard, ideal for entertaining. Inspections are bound to impress, offers keenly encouraged. Land size 1065 m²
