Whilst also being close to Geelong CBD for any commuters. It comprises a large master bedroom with ensuite, split system air-conditioner and built-in robe, as well as two further double bedrooms, each with heating, robes and ceiling fans. Beyond the central hall, you'll find a beautiful light-filled open-plan living/dining space, a second split system air-conditioner and a kitchen ready for the entertainer. Consisting of stainless steel appliances including dishwasher, induction cook top and endless storage. The bi-fold French doors open onto the expansive rear deck, creating the perfect indoor-outdoor space, ready to enjoy the upcoming summer days. A large main bathroom, with shower over bath and European style laundry finish off this lovely interior. Outside, you'll find a delightful established garden and room for the kids to play in fully fenced front and rear gardens. A single carport, with driveway space for an extra car and garden shed complete this well-thought-out package. Just a stone's throw from East Geelong, Eastern and Botanic gardens, public transport, schools and all the shops you will ever need.
