This classic stone home is on the market and looking for love. Located in the bustling community of Cummins, where properties have been selling like hotcakes this home provides a unique opportunity to purchase a piece of Cummins history. The property is in the first home buyer or renovators dream price bracket. With three or four bedrooms and on a corner allotment this home has plenty of space. The bedrooms are all large with the classic high ceilings and fireplaces synonymous with properties of this era. Making your way through the wide hallway to the living area at the back of the home, and you'll find an open plan kitchen, dining and living area. The bathroom has a bath and separate shower and toilet. Outside and the home boasts plenty of room in the backyard with multiple sheds and mature fruit trees including fig, apple, nectarine, apricots and a grapevine. The double garage provides more storage space and there is plenty of room for parking off-street. This home is in need of some TLC but upon inspection you can see the potential to bring this charming home back to its former glory. Call today to arrange an inspection.
