Dwellingup has been crowned Western Australia's Top Tiny Tourism Town for 2023 in a boon for the Peel region's status as a rapidly growing tourism mecca. While the tourism influx is certainly giving this wonderful spot plenty of exposure, accommodation levels are not keeping up with demand, this would make a perfect Airbnb property. You may be looking for a weekend getaway, only 80 minutes away from the Perth metro area, or wanting an investment with an eye to a tree change for the future, this one is for you. Two minutes from the state forest for walks, bike trails or exploring and in the other direction, cafes, hotel and stores in the main streets of Dwellingup town. Large areas to park multiple cars, caravans etc. Accessible from rear laneway as well. Easy functional kitchen. Ready to go.- 2 Bedroom - 1 Sleep out [possible 3rd bedroom or office]- 1 Bathroom and Laundry- 2 Sheds plus a workshop out back
