Situated in close proximity to schools, shops, and recreational amenities, this residence presents a wealth of opportunities. Boasting four bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring an ensuite, along with two spacious living areas, this home caters perfectly to both families and investors. The expansive property includes ample off-street parking, accommodating numerous vehicles, and incorporates a substantial shed that serves as an ideal space for storing vehicles, boats, or caravans, all while allowing for ample room for those with a knack for DIY projects. The well-maintained pergola area offers a serene vantage point overlooking easily manageable gardens and a charming fish pond. For pet owners, the fully fenced front yard provides an excellent space.
