Destined to set a new benchmark, Ben Robertson of Tecture Architects & Interior Design masterfully creates bold & distinctive style drawing reference from world class interiors in this magnificent family residence. The striking exterior bears no indication of the luxury within, the epitome of bespoke design blending for entertaining on both grand & a more intimate scale. A double height foyer offers a glimpse of the extraordinary, a prelude to illuminated open plan living, served by an ingenious state-of-the art kitchen with super white quartzite surfaces, black Miele appliances, gas hobs built into solid marble as the cooktop, sleek black cabinetry, an incredible island bench with a difference & a butler's kitchen. A seamless connection through stacker sliding doors reveals the immaculate wrap around gardens beyond, complete with a grape vine draped pergola, a Beefeater BBQ, lush lawns & a cubby house. A multipurpose room features two cleverly concealed doors to either integrate into the living room or remain for a more private escape add & a well zoned fitted study, full laundry & powder room concluding the ground floor. Delivering a captivating main bedroom suite are his & her walk-in wardrobes, the piece de resistance being a solid marble ensuite that must be seen to be believed rivalling that of some of the greatest hotels. Three generous bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, one with an ensuite concludes with a superior family bathroom with a wet area shower & bath. The latest in every amenity includes key less entry with remote access to doors & alarm, zoned central heating & cooling, extensive built-in joinery & marble, Shugg windows, feature louvres, black trimming throughout all just the start of the journey of this outstanding residence moments to Glen Huntly Road, Caulfield Primary School, Glen Eira College, exclusive private schools & superb family amenities.
