Homes in this stunning part of Seascapes, Halls Head offer real quality and arguably more selling points than the average family home in other suburbs, and this one is exactly that. So many features to list in one go, but here's what's on offer with this amazing home:- 10m long, extra wide and high garage. Perfect for a tradie to drive in and drive out without unhooking anything - Recently done exposed aggregate driveway and surround - Huge family home with 4 bedrooms, all with robes - Master suite with walk in robe and massive ensuite with double vanity and corner bath - Commanding family room with soaring, pitched ceiling - Nice separation for dining & living overlooked by large, chefs kitchen - Enclosed living areas to both sides, perfect for theatre one side and games or home office the other - Ducted air con plus reverse cycle split systems - 2 under the main roof alfrescos to each side of the home - Low maintenance yard with lovely landscaping to front & back - Corner block location with nice street elevation - Short walk to the beach, parks, schools & shops To be honest, you'll be probably be sold on this home before you walk in the front door because you'll want the extra long garage for your 4 cars, caravan or trailer!!! So do not miss this one.....get in touch now before someone else does! Contact John Phillips now for more info and an inspection.
