This delightful studio that is conveniently located in the heart of Melbourne's CBD has just become available and definitely will not last long! The property features a large open plan living which conveniently doubles as a bedroom, a private bathroom with combined bath and shower and kitchen with gas appliances, built in fridge and dishwasher. The studio features 3m high ceilings, a generous amount of windows for you to capture your own personal view of the city and an abundance of natural light. Being situated on one of the most popular streets in Melbourne, this property is in the most prime location for shopping, public transport and Bourke Street Mall.
