Creating harmonious living this luxurious 3 bedroom apartment in a prized pocket of Moonee Ponds has been meticulously crafted both in and out, and appointed with only the finest finishes, to deliver an unparalleled living experience to a convenient, culturally rich location. Composed of French Oak floors, quality finishes, expansive proportions and plentiful light – the open-plan living area is defined by an atmosphere of serenity. Appointed with authentic stone benchtops, high-end appliances and ample storage throughout, the kitchen has been carefully designed to cultivate an inspiring and effortless living experience. The living area spills out onto a large terrace complete with spectacular city views. Open the sliding doors during the warmer months to form an expansive, indoor-outdoor entertaining space, the perfect setting for an alfresco dinner party, or simply a place to unwind. Light-filled and exquisitely appointed, the master suite is a sanctuary for rest and rejuvenation. The bedroom enjoys a custom walk-in robe featuring built-in shelves, hangers and drawer space. Illuminated by soft dappled light, the connecting ensuite is adorned in a textural palette of finishes, with considered storage options and a double-vanity. Thoughtfully crafted by John Demos, the architecture makes a sophisticated yet timeless contribution to the fabric of Buckley Street. The facade materiality is refined in essence – featuring a textural blend of fluted concrete and steel pattern-work. Afforded with walls of glazing, residents will enjoy stunning vistas of the surrounding landscape and city skyline as well as abundant light at all times of day. Relish the added convenience of 2 secure basement car spaces along with 2 storage cages, providing ample storage both within and out of the apartment itself and enjoy the convenience of Moonee Pond's best cafes, restaurants, local parks, transport and leading local schools. Don't miss this opportunity to elevate your lifestyle and experience the epitome of luxury living.
