St Kilda is one of Melbourne's iconic suburbs and 181 Fitzroy Street is ode to the best of modern design. Pace Development together with SJB Architects have set the benchmark. A rooftop deck with a 20m infinity lap pool overlooking privileged, uninterrupted vistas of the city skyline, Albert Park and Port Phillip Bay, including a rooftop barbecue area and a concierge. Positioned on the 3rd floor of this contemporary residence, this stylish open plan security apartment includes quality fittings throughout with reconstituted stone bench tops, plenty of cupboards, European appliances, integrated refrigerator and Fisher/Paykel dishwasher, reverse cycle air conditioning/heating, lift access and a visual security intercom system. A generous size bedroom with room for a Queen size bed plus built in mirrored robes and walk through to a central bathroom with a spacious glass shower recess, an entertaining balcony with fabulous park, city and water views. This contemporary residence comes with a study area, timber floorboards, Euro Laundry with stainless steel sink. Centrally located opposite the park, with Café options, restaurants, bars, the beach, transport and all within moments away from the CBD. What a lifestyle. What an apartment! (6 months lease)
